This weekend is forecast to be a true spring weekend with nice warm temperatures and partly sunny skies. I know everyone is excited to be outdoors and visit. But please remember when you look at our states numbers of Covid-19 compared to states around us all of the isolation and social distancing is paying off. So let's all enjoy the outdoors and keep the social distancing (6ft) from other people. Besides the fresh air is good for you. take this time to check on your neighbors at a safe distance and make sure they have what they need and are doing well under the situation.
